

The Supporting Wall of Friends of the Regiment

Every building has walls referred to as 'supporting walls'. These are the fundamental structures that keep the building erect. They bear the weight of the roof and the floors above. Without them the building would collapse.

At the new Aurora Armouries we are creating our own Supporting Wall of Friends of the Regiment. It is a unique opportunity for individuals and corporations to demonstrate their support for our troops but to also have their name displayed in a more permanent fashion.

Working with the Pine Tree Potters' Guild of Aurora, we are selling porcelain plaques, inscribed with the donor's name. Handcrafted by guild members, each plaque is a unique piece of art. The completed plaques will be permanently attached to the Supporting Wall of Friends of the Regiment inside the new armouries, proudly recognizing, by name, those who have tangibly demonstrated their support for our Rangers.

The money raised from the sale of the plaques will go toward the costs associated with establishing the new armoury but not paid for by the Department of National Defence. It will also go towards special projects directly supporting our Rangers, such as Christmas dinners for the men, maintenance of dress uniforms, care packages for soldiers stationed overseas, support of the band and cadet corps and other similar projects.

Plaques come in several sizes (approximate dimensions below) and price ranges:

- Small (3" x 8") @ $250
- Large (6" x 8") @ $400
- Double Large (12" x 8") @ $750
- Large Group (grouping of 4 large or 2 double large plaques) @ $1500

Each plaque bears the name of the individual, group or corporation that is making the donation. Charitable tax receipts will be issued. The donor can specify the name to be inscribed on the plaque such as "Jack Jones" or "MacIntrye Family" or "Peters & Sons Inc." or "In memory of John Smith". The possible number of letters varies depending upon the size of the plaque. The Pine Tree Potters' Guild will work with the donor if the lettering is too long for the selected plaque.

To order your plaque send your cheque or money order, payable to the Regimental Council, The Queen's York Rangers, along with your desired inscription, to:
